I, _____, the undersigned affiant, states the following under oath:

PRINT NAME

☐ The defendant/respondent ☐ is in military service. ☐ is not in military service.
☒ The affiant is unable to determine whether or not the defendant/respondent is in military service.

The following facts support the statement above:

Though no SCRA search could be performed due to search results producing a less than conclusive answer (see attached), Ms. Wessells is known to the affiant via having been in contact with the firm throughout the parties' interactions, and is not believed to be in active service, belief informed by these interactions.

Pursuant to 50 U.S.C. § 3931, if the court is unable to determine whether the defendant/respondent is in military service based upon the affiant's statement, the court, before entering judgment, may require the plaintiff/petitioner to file a bond in an amount approved by the court.

BASED ON THE PERSONAL INFORMATION YOU PROVIDED, THERE ARE MULTIPLE RECORDS; ACCORDINGLY, DMDC CANNOT DEFINITELY IDENTIFY THE INDIVIDUAL AND IS UNABLE TO RELEASE ANY INFORMATION. WE STRONGLY RECOMMEND IN THIS CASE THAT YOU CALL THE SERVICE SCRA FOR ADDITIONAL VERIFICATION. A URL FOR THE SERVICE SCRA POINTS-OF-CONTACT IS PROVIDED BELOW.

HOWEVER, WITHOUT A SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER, THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE MANPOWER DATA CENTER CANNOT AUTHORITATIVELY ASSERT THAT THIS IS THE SAME INDIVIDUAL THAT YOUR QUERY REFERS TO. NAME AND DATE OF BIRTH ALONE DO NOT UNIQUELY IDENTIFY AN INDIVIDUAL.

Sam Yousefzadeh

Sam Yousefzadeh, Director
Department of Defense - Manpower Data Center

Alexandria, VA 22350

The Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) is a organization of the Department of Defense (DoD) that maintains the Defense Enrollment and Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) database which is the official source of data on eligibility for military medical care and other eligibility systems.

The DoD strongly supports the enforcement of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 USC App. § 3901 et seq, as amended) (SCRA) (formerly known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940). DMDC has issued hundreds of thousands of "does not possess any information indicating that the individual is currently on active duty" responses, and has experienced only a small error rate. In the event the individual referenced above, or any family member, friend, or representative asserts in any manner that the individual was on active duty for the active duty status date, or is otherwise entitled to the protections of the SCRA, you are strongly encouraged to obtain further verification of the person's status by contacting that person's Service. Service contact information can be found on the SCRA website's FAQ page (Q35) via this URL: <https://scra.dmdc.osd.mil/scra/faq>. If you have evidence the person was on active duty for the active duty status date and you fail to obtain this additional Service verification, punitive provisions of the SCRA may be invoked against you. See 50 USC App. § 3921(c).

This response reflects the following information: (1) The individual's Active Duty status on the Active Duty Status Date (2) Whether the individual left Active Duty status within 367 days preceding the Active Duty Status Date (3) Whether the individual or his/her unit received early notification to report for active duty on the Active Duty Status Date.

More information on "Active Duty Status"

Active duty status as reported in this certificate is defined in accordance with 10 USC § 101(d) (1). Prior to 2010 only some of the active duty periods less than 30 consecutive days in length were available. In the case of a member of the National Guard, this includes service under a call to active service authorized by the President or the Secretary of Defense under 32 USC § 502(f) for purposes of responding to a national emergency declared by the President and supported by Federal funds. All Active Guard Reserve (AGR) members must be assigned against an authorized mobilization position in the unit they support. This includes Navy Training and Administration of the Reserves (TARs), Marine Corps Active Reserve (ARs) and Coast Guard Reserve Program Administrator (RPAs). Active Duty status also applies to a Uniformed Service member who is an active duty commissioned officer of the U.S. Public Health Service or the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA Commissioned Corps).

Coverage Under the SCRA is Broader in Some Cases

Coverage under the SCRA is broader in some cases and includes some categories of persons on active duty for purposes of the SCRA who would not be reported as on Active Duty under this certificate. SCRA protections are for Title 10 and Title 14 active duty records for all the Uniformed Services periods. Title 32 periods of Active Duty are not covered by SCRA, as defined in accordance with 10 USC § 101(d)(1).

Many times orders are amended to extend the period of active duty, which would extend SCRA protections. Persons seeking to rely on this website certification should check to make sure the orders on which SCRA protections are based have not been amended to extend the inclusive dates of service. Furthermore, some protections of the SCRA may extend to persons who have received orders to report for active duty or to be inducted, but who have not actually begun active duty or actually reported for induction. The Last Date on Active Duty entry is important because a number of protections of the SCRA extend beyond the last dates of active duty.

Those who could rely on this certificate are urged to seek qualified legal counsel to ensure that all rights guaranteed to Service members under the SCRA are protected

WARNING: This certificate was provided based on a last name, SSN/date of birth, and active duty status date provided by the requester. Providing erroneous information will cause an erroneous certificate to be provided.

Dear Deborah,

This Client Agreement ("Agreement") is between PJI Law, PLC ("we", "us" or the "Firm") and you, and is effective on the date that it has both of our signatures. It establishes the terms of our engagement as your counsel, outlines what both you and we agree to do as we work together, and protects both you and us from misunderstandings that could otherwise come up.

You have retained us to assist you with your estate administration matter ("this Matter"). We look forward to working with you side by side. The scope of this Matter may be enlarged from time to time by clear agreement of the Firm. Please note that the representation does not include any appeals unless we agree to it in writing, and that it does not include any tax advice.

Representation and Communication

As your legal counsel, we will stand by you, guide you, advise you, answer your questions, and otherwise do our very best for you with a focus on achieving your goal. We will make full use of our team to your benefit. This means that even though your primary communication may be with only a few members of our team, our lawyers and legal support staff in the Firm will be regularly discussing your matter amongst themselves, brainstorming, and exchanging ideas and solutions as necessary for your matter, so that our firm's entire collective weight and knowledge can be at your disposal.

You can rest assured that since you are retaining the entire Firm, rather than any particular individual, we will assemble the team of professionals best suited to serve your specific needs and requirements at each stage of the representation.

We will be honest, respectful, responsive, and caring. To help us do our best for you, you agree to cooperate with us fully, promptly, and honestly, and to provide us all of the information we need to assist you. If there is any change in your address, phone number, or email address, or if you become aware of any new relevant information that appears to be related to your matter, you agree to update us promptly. If we are unable to reach you for ten (10) days, we may have to withdraw from the representation.

If there are any problems, we will want to fix them immediately. So if at any time you become dissatisfied with our handling of your matter, you agree to inform us immediately so that we can resolve the problem.

With that said, you are free to terminate our representation at any time. We may also terminate this representation if you violate this Agreement or for any other reason as permitted or required by rules and regulations.

You understand that in this day and age there are risks to communicating through telecommunication devices, such as telephone and email, as those communications are susceptible to interception or breaches, and may therefore carry the potential for loss of confidentiality. With this knowledge, you agree to the risks associated with the use of such forms of communication in relation to this Matter. You also understand that if you use your work email in corresponding with us, depending on your employer's privacy policies you risk the waiver of confidentiality and the attorney-client privilege.

Fees and Expenses

In exchange for us beginning to provide the services listed above, you agree to the following fee structure: You will pay the Firm $5,000.00 which will be placed in a trust account and divided as follows:

a) $3,000.00 will be deposited in a trust account and will be treated as a deposit that is not intended to be used to pay fees, and that will remain until the termination of representation, unless at our discretion it is applied to any of your balance if we don't receive payment on time or if this Matter is being closed, or as we otherwise deem appropriate. Any unused part of the deposit will be returned to you by check at the end of the representation.

b) $2,000.00 will be deposited in a trust account and will be used to pay for services and expenses when they are incurred. If these funds are not all used for services and expenses, the remainder will be returned to you by check at the end of the representation.

If the non-deposit trust funds are exhausted, you agree to pay any additional amounts invoiced by the due date indicated on the invoice.

We will collect payment information to be stored securely and you authorize us to charge the amount owed each billing period to the payment method provided (eCheck or credit/debit card). You agree that we will send invoices via email to the following email address: lambevpie2@aol.com. We typically issue invoices on a monthly basis, but we may issue them more often and with varying due dates if there are periods of high case activity. Upon receipt of the invoice, you have the option to submit payment using any type of payment method that the firm accepts. If the invoice remains unpaid after eight (8) days, you agree that we are authorized to process payment with the payment method on file. You agree that no prior notification of this charge other than sending the bill to the email address indicated above will be provided. A receipt of any payments will be promptly provided to you at the email address on file. If the payment method provided is by eCheck, you agree that any charges in excess of $5,000.00 will be processed in more than one transaction. In the event that your payment method is declined, you agree to provide another payment method before the due date on your invoice.

We will charge a one-time file-opening fee of $150.00, as well as the following hourly fees for our services, divided into increments of tenths of an hour:

Attorney:	$445.00
Paralegal:	$245.00
Legal Assistant:	$145.00

Actual time incurred may be calculated to the next higher tenth of an hour. You agree that we may reduce charges where we feel that specific services we provide do not warrant such charges. You agree with us determining, based on our professional knowledge and experience, the personnel that will perform various services on your matter based on a number of factors, including ethical considerations, the complexity of the service, efficiency, cost-effectiveness, urgency, availability, and other such factors. We reserve the right to make changes to the above fee structure in the future, but we must give you at least a 30-day notice of any changes, unless you agree to waive such notice.

In the course of this Matter, we might incur out-of-pocket costs and expenses on your behalf that are paid to third parties or spent on supplies, for example. You agree to reimburse us for the costs and expenses that we incur, including but not limited to: any court/government fees, courier service, photocopying, postage, travel expenses, records requests, and other such costs. You agree to pay for some such costs and expenses before they are incurred by us or directly to the third party, if we request it.

You are welcome to make payments by check made out to PJI Law, PLC (dropped off or mailed to us), by eCheck (online or by calling us) or by credit card (online or by calling us). If you are paying by check, we may not begin representation until the check clears. You agree to pay $35.00 for every returned check.

Your matter deserves our committed and uninterrupted attention. For this reason it is very important to ensure that the invoices are paid on time. You agree that if we do not receive payment by the due date indicated on an invoice, you will pay interest on the unpaid balance at 18.00% per annum, as calculated by our billing software on a monthly or other basis. In addition, if we engage in collection action to recover any unpaid funds, you agree to pay all costs of collection efforts, including collections fees incurred by the Firm and reasonable attorney's fees. You agree that where interest has accrued, payments made may, at our discretion, be applied to accrued interest before being applied to principal. You agree that any funds of yours in our possession may be applied to any unpaid balance on any matter you have with us. You agree that any fee dispute may, at our sole discretion, be submitted to binding arbitration by the Virginia State Bar fee dispute resolution program, and you agree to not contest any such submission. You understand that failure to pay on time may cause the Firm to terminate representation.

Miscellaneous

Each provision of this Agreement is severable. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase or term of this Agreement shall not affect or impair the validity or enforceability of any other provision, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase or term of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Both you and the Firm agree that any action brought to enforce any right or obligation hereunder shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and the venue shall be in Fairfax County, Virginia.

This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, but all counterparts shall constitute one and the same legal document. Faxed, scanned, or other legible copies of this Agreement shall constitute and be considered as an original Agreement for all legal purposes.

You agree that we may retain your case files for 10 (ten) years following the conclusion of this Matter, at which point they may be destroyed. You are welcome to request a copy of the file at any time that we still have it, and you agree that due to the time and effort required, we will charge for its preparation based on our then-current fee schedule, and that you will reimburse us for fees and costs incurred in preparing a copy of the file before it is delivered to you.

We will use our best efforts in representing you in this Matter, but you acknowledge that we can give no assurances as to the final outcome.

By signing below, you confirm that you understand and accept the terms of this Agreement.
